On the move

Bosch

MARTIN HAYES: Appointed president and managing director for South-east Asia at Robert Bosch.

Mr Hayes, who has spent more than 20 years with the group, will be located in Singapore, its regional headquarters.

Former president Cem Peksaglam has returned to Germany to assume a global post at the security systems arm.

Deutsche Bank

TONY TANG & ELEONORE DACHICOURT: Mr Tang, who will be based in Hong Kong, was named managing director and head of North Asia client solutions for the private wealth management arm.

The private banking arm also appointed Ms Dachicourt as director and head of hedge fund sales for Asia.

Jade Technologies

CHAN KUM EE: Resigned on Dec 31 as group president to concentrate on his appointment as chairman of Australian-listed Norwood Abbey.

Dr In Nany Sing will cover his duties until a suitable candidate is identified.

Chemoil Energy

THOMAS REILLY: Named as the group's new chief executive (CEO) and director.

Mr Reilly, 49, was formerly CEO of energy brokerage OceanConnect Holdings, which just sold its marine fuel business to Chemoil at an estimated price of US$25 million (S$32.4 million).

CSE Global

ALAN STUBBS: Promoted as group managing director.

Mr Stubbs, 52, will continue as managing director of the CSE Global UK group of companies.

Rotol

CAROL LIEW SHUE CHING: Resigned from Rotol Singapore as chief financial officer, with effect from last Friday, to pursue other opportunities.
